DO I NEED FIRE RETARDANT SOFT FURNISHINGS?

If you require soft furnishings, for example, decorative cushions or bed throws, there are no required regulations but they should still be 'safe' in accordance with General Product Safety Regulations. Here at Bridge, if your establishment is non-domestic e.g. schools, accommodation, healthcare or hospitality, we do recommend using fire retardant fabric for any soft furnishings as it gives peace of mind and added safety. If you're unsure of what is best for your establishment then our team of experts can assist in recommending the perfect soft furnishings for you.
